5. [ ] - LLM) Miss Jackie Godwin, in the office of Representative Charles Wilson (D., Calif.), called on behalf of a college student interested in a report on Agency activities in Southeast Asia. Miss Godwin appreciated the Agency's no comment policy but said she would be very thankful if we could prepare a suggested response for them to the individual, which is being done.

7. [ ] - JMM) [ ] and I met with Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, and provided him with figures on ICBM deployment per his earlier request. We also briefed him on latest information regarding the high infiltration rate in Vietnam, the Soviet military situation along the ChiCom border, Soviet naval missile tests and the Soviet lunar vehicle.

Braswell commented that Senator Stennis continues to be troubled over conditions in Vietnam and feels he is not getting reliable briefings from the Defense Department. Braswell asked if we had any current estimates or studies containing an assessment of the overall picture. I suggested an oral briefing might be more useful which we would be glad to lay on at the Senator's convenience. Braswell said one thing the Senator was deeply troubled by was the prevalence of drugs among GI's, and wondered whether the Agency had any information as to whether the distribution of these drugs was being subsidized by hostile interests.

We reviewed, at Braswell's request, certain of our own [ ]
